

Salsoul Label Discography

Salsoul Records was based in New York City. It was founded by three brothers, Joseph, Kenneth and Stanley Cayre in 1974. Salsoul released the first commercially distributed 12 inch single in 1976 with "Ten Percent" by Double Exposure. The label was focused on disco music but was able to survive the death of disco for five years; Salsoul went out of business in 1985. The label had subsidiaries of Dream, Free Spirit, Gold Mind and Tom 'n' Jerry. Salsoul and its subsidiaries were distributed by RCA.
